Send in news of your boy or his friends in uniform who keep in touch with him. Phone 728.

Lieut. J. W. Dales, St. Thomas, and PO R. C. Dales, Rivers, Man., are visiting their parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Dales.
Lieut. Bernice Boyd, Toronto, was a recent guest of Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Dales.
Sgt. Robert McTavish (instructor), has been posted to S.F.T.S., Centralia, from Mont Joli, Que.
Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mitchell, Newmarket, of a get-together of their two sons, Earl and Ken, at the Maple Leaf club in London, England. After three years of overseas service including service in Italy and Holland, Earl reached England where he was able to get in touch with his brother and they met in London.
Squad-Ldr. J. A. Koffend is in town on a ten-day leave.
Mrs. Milton Leppard received a beautiful bouquet of mixed flowers on Mother's Day from her son, AB Herbert Leppard, who is serving overseas.

SUPPER GIVEN FOR SOLDIERS

One hundred and ten servicemen and guests sat down to a supper at the Citizen-Soldier club Monday night. The supper and the entertainment which followed were sponsored jointly by the rehabilitation committee and the town council.
F. S. Thompson acted as toastmaster during the evening which featured the distribution by Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales of scrolls recognizing their contribution in the war to servicemen of Newmarket. The scrolls carried a few words of gratitude and are to have the names and rank of the recipients hand-lettered on them.
Mayor Dales was the only speech of the evening and that a short one. Paying full recognition of the part played by Newmarket men and women in the services, Mayor Dales declared that the town now looked to the returning men for leadership in community activities. "You have travelled far and seen much," he told those assembled. "You have had the opportunity to see how others have lived and have had the chance to compare their way with ours. You have seen what is good in our way of living and what can be improved. We look to you to help us bring about those improvements. Believe me, your leadership will receive every support from the town."
The roll of those who had paid the supreme sacrifice was called by Mr. Thompson, following which, there was a one-minute silence in homage to them. A number of humorous skits were performed and a magician amazed the audience with his ability to manipulate a deck of cards by remote control.
All those who attended had words of praise for the manner in which the supper was served by the ladies of the committee. A vote of thanks was moved by Mr. Thompson and Let Me Call You Sweetheart was sung by the guests in tribute to the ladies' work.

MISSING
Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Walker, King, have received word that their son, WO Gordon V. Walker, 25, who had almost completed his first tour of operations, is missing in action.

REMODEL RESTAURANT
The Whitehouse restaurant is remodelling its interior and changing over from counter to restaurant service.

BREAKS RIBS
Mrs. G. B. Thompson, Holland Landing, fell last week and broke several ribs.

LIBERATED
Sgt. John Oliver, Mount Albert, has been liberated from a German prisoner of war camp.
Tpr. John William Irwin Banks, whose wife, Mrs. Jean E. Banks, lives in Newmarket, has been freed from a German prisoner of war camp.

Your Federal Choices

The Era and Express takes pleasure in printing the platforms of the three parties contesting this riding as written by the candidates. The provincial candidates will appear later.

By EARL TOOLE

Federal Progressive-Conservative Candidate for York North

The editor of The Era and Express has generously offered me this space in his paper to make

Earl Toole was born in Whitchurch township 44 years ago and attended public school in the township and the Newmarket high school. Following high school he went to the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph for two years. He was president of the York County Junior Farmers in 1921.

He has had 11 years in municipal life, six years as reeve of Whitchurch council. He has held every office in York County council and in 1939, was county commissioner. He was warden of the county in 1942.

known a few of my ideas. I assure him that I appreciate his kindness.
Over a year ago I was approached and requested to consider offering myself as a candidate in the coming federal election. At first I objected to the idea but on further consideration I decided to accept the invitation. All my life, while working on the farm, I have interested myself in the affairs of the community and if my friends, knowing my record, thought I could serve in a larger capacity, then I felt it a privilege and duty to do so. The desire of my life has been to see and enjoy a better countryside and I must always hold myself ready to do anything that will ensure the same.

I have long since concluded that too few people, intimately acquainted with the difficulties of the ordinary man, namely the farmer, the laborer and the small business man, have been willing to offer themselves for office and assist in the solution of these problems which for too long have apparently been overlooked.

As a farmer I think the farmers should have a market in which they can dispose of their produce. A market in which they can buy and sell on equal terms with others. To this end we should have a system by which prices are determined and announced in advance of production.

For a long time I have thought of the distribution of opportunities to the young of the countryside so that each one may enjoy the very best in education. I care not whether a boy wishes an academic or vocational education. It is my belief that the country should help him to achieve it. Circumstances play a large part in life but no circumstances should be allowed to deny any boy or girl their God-given right to a liberal education.

Coupled with the idea of edu-

By J. E. SMITH

Federal Liberal Candidate for York North

Before you invest your money in a house or a farm or a car, you take a look around at what is offered for sale and you examine the property or article twice before your cash goes down on the line. High-pressure salesmanship may help you make up your mind but still you won't buy sight unseen.

In the election of June 11, you are buying your way of life for the next five years. You are buying prosperity or disaster, happiness or trouble. And three concerns are in competition for your trade. I'm the salesman for

J. E. Smith, the Liberal federal nominee, was born on a Victoria county farm 43 years ago and after finishing high school, entered newspaper work. He has been the editor and publisher of the Richmond Hill Liberal for the past 20 years. He is married and the father of three daughters. He is past president of the Richmond Hill Lions club, past master of Richmond Lodge, A.F. and A.M., and for 12 years was president of the North York Liberal Association.

one, the Liberals.

All we are asking you to do at this point is to apply your common sense to your choice. We want you to examine in detail the three deals proposed to you and we will stand or fall by your decision. We believe that the decision will swing our way because we are the only ones with something definite to offer.

We are inviting you to look carefully into what we have to sell while others are asking you to buy, sight unseen, on the basis of a job of high-pressure salesmanship.

The Liberal program goes deep into economic problems but yet it remains a program that is easy to understand. It is based on the straightforward belief that if people have money in their pockets then the country's position is O.K. If the workers in the towns have money, then they will buy more food produced on the farms. If the farmers have money, they will buy more goods produced in the factories. Between them, they will keep the storekeeper prosperous.

How do the Liberals propose to do this? Well, a good deal of the necessary measures have already become the law of the land. Take the whole program step by step and see how each dovetails into the other and how all of them follow the pattern of purchasing power, job, fair farm prices, prosperity.

First, markets. The home market is the more important one. It represents about 65 percent of the sales of everything produced in Canada and so the Liberals have taken steps to ensure that Canadians can keep buying Canadian products.

These people fall into two groups, the farmers and the industrial workers. The Conservatives try to convince both that they are natural-born enemies, rather than that, as is true, they are natural allies, whose prosperity depends on one another. Most of the worker's spare dollar goes for the foodstuffs that the farmer produces; and the farmer's spare dollar goes into the products of the industrial worker's labor.

So, to ensure that both possess those extra dollars, the Liberal government has seen to it that the industrial workers can organize, without hindrance, into unions for their own advancement and that sub-standard wages are raised to fair levels. Meanwhile, floors have been placed under farm prices and it has been made clear that they will remain there just as long as they are needed.

But, inevitably, there will be

By MAJOR A. H. WOODS

Federal C.C.F. Candidate for York North

The invitation to present the program of the C.C.F. in the columns of The Era and Express is very much appreciated.

First: A word about the C.C.F. itself and why I am a member of it.

The C.C.F. is a democratic party, controlled by its members. The leaders and officers are elected by the membership at delegate conventions. Provincial conventions are held every year and national conventions every two years. Every word of the C.C.F. program has been put there by national and provincial conventions. No leader or officer of the C.C.F. has any right to add anything or to take anything from the C.C.F. program. Only the membership may do that.

The membership of the C.C.F. is made up of people from all walks of life, from every province of the dominion. Farmers, industrial workers, housewives, teachers, doctors, dentists, office workers, bricklayers, carpenters and small business men meet in C.C.F. conventions, to pool their Major A. H. Woods was born and educated in Cardiff, South Wales, and came to Canada in 1912, settling in Toronto. In 1914, he enlisted as a private in the Canadian army and after overseas service, was demobilized in 1919 with the rank of lieutenant. He re-enlisted in the Canadian army in 1940 and was adjutant at No. 23 military camp in Newmarket when he was transferred to the educational basic training centre in North Bay.

His home is in Newmarket. He is married and has two children. He has been a member of the C.C.F. since its early days and has held many offices in the party. In 1937, he was provincial candidate in York West. He was provincial treasurer of the party and business manager of the New Commonwealth in 1938.

varied experiences in building the C.C.F. program.

Every unit of the C.C.F. represents a cross section of the Canadian people. The C.C.F. constituency council of York North (the governing body in the riding) is no exception. Included in its membership are two machinists, three high school teachers (one lady and two men), one housewife, one pensioner, one factory foreman, and one small business man. The industrial workers on the council are trade unionists.

Membership in the C.C.F. is open to all regardless of race, creed or color. The C.C.F. is financed entirely by its members and supporters. The C.C.F. does not receive donations from big business.

I became a member of the C.C.F. shortly after its formation because I had become convinced that it was futile to expect the old parties to make any serious attempt to remedy the conditions under which so many thousands of us were compelled to live. The records of both old parties during the years that I have been a member of the C.C.F. have served to strengthen my conviction that only in a people's party—the C.C.F.—there is any hope of political and economic salvation.

The space allotted will not permit me to state the C.C.F. program in full. I can but give you a sketchy outline. Here it is. 1. A C.C.F. government will bring under public ownership all banks and other financial institutions, communication systems, monopolistic industries such as manufacturers of textiles and farm machinery. These will all be operated for the benefit of the people as a whole. Lower interest rates on mortgages and other loans, and cheaper insur-

Home, School Ass'n Names Officers For Coming Year

Mrs. M. B. Seldon was acclaimed as president of the Home and School Association in Newmarket at a business meeting of the club in Stuart Scott school Tuesday night. Other officers acclaimed were: first vice-pres., Mrs. J. A. Koffend; second vice-pres., Miss Evelyn Denne; rec. sec., Mrs. S. G. Smith; corr. sec., Mrs. S. G. Beare; treas., Mrs. B. A. Budd; exec. members, H. A. Jackson, F. L. Hall, Mrs. E. Robinson, Mrs. L. H. Bovair, Mrs. H. M. Covey, Mrs. H. Bennett, Mrs. L. Boynton.

The slate prepared by the nomination committee and including all the above names was adopted without further names being added. Reports of the various committees were given and the financial report will be published at a later date.

Prior to the business part of the meeting, members of the junior choir of the Christian church, under the direction of Mrs. J. E. Cane, presented excerpts from their recent concert. Joan Curtis and Erla Weddel played a duet; Marion Gibson sang Brown Bird Singing, Allen Perks sang the Melodious Blacksmith; Mary Climpson and Marlene Martin sang an old French Cradle song; the double trio, Muriel Broughton, Mary Epworth, Joan Widdifield, Dorothy Broughton, Jean Staley and Dorothy Bennett, sang the Rising of the Lark; Donald Brice sang Land of Hope and Glory, accompanied by the double trio.

Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards reporting on the Home and School convention spoke of the emphasis placed on craft work and urged that such work be encouraged by the Home and School Association. Other speakers applauded the idea and Rev. Henry Cotton offered the facilities of Trinity United church to that end.

Election Issue Said Control By People Or Vested Interests

The electors of Canada are faced with a fatal decision which they must make on election day, Major A. H. Woods, C.C.F. federal candidate for York North, declared Friday. "The issue is whether the control of the country is to remain in the hands of those who have only a selfish interest at heart, or whether the country will be controlled by the people."

Maj. Woods spoke at an election rally in Newmarket town hall. On the platform with him were David Lewis, C.C.F. national secretary, and George H. Mitchell, C.C.F. provincial candidate in York North. Orville Ganton, president of the Newmarket C.C.F. association, acted as chairman to open the meeting. Music was supplied by the Newmarket Boys band under the direction of Bandmaster Robert Moore.

"The C.C.F. has a philosophy and insists on the right to present that philosophy," said Maj. Woods. "We do not mind criticism but we do object to the introduction of the methods of Chicago gangsters into Canadian politics. I refer to this vile, vicious sheet, Social Suicide, which you may have received through the mails. It is full of lies and is but a vicious attack on the C.C.F."

Maj. Woods charged that the publication was being supported by the monies inherited from the League of Individual Freedom which, he said, had been financed by 32 large business concerns. He said that the author of the publication, B. A. Trestail, was a "not too successful businessman." "I challenge our opponents to come out from behind their camouflage or else repudiate the magazine from a public platform."

Maj. Woods further charged that the publication violated the (Page 7, Col. 2)

"The dissolution of Parliament is laid at the door of the C.C.F. party by its enemies but Premier Drew could have resigned and asked the lieutenant governor to form a government," said George H. Mitchell, C.C.F. provincial candidate, at a meeting Friday in the Newmarket town hall. "But Premier Drew knew that the longer he waited, the less chance his party had of remaining in power. Now he has his election before the boys have come home."

Saying that the old parties represented the same thing here that they had in England, vested interests opposed to the franchise of the working people, Mr. Mitchell called upon his audience to use their God-given intelligence in deciding how to vote.

Mr. Mitchell criticized the attitude of the other parties towards returning men, "calling soldiers heroes after having refused them food and shelter before the war." Mr. Mitchell said that as a member of a township council he had had an ample opportunity to observe the way the unemployed and reliefes had been treated by the other parties.

"The other parties' social legislation is predicted on how little is required to keep the electors quiet," said Mr. Mitchell. "There is plenty for all. We have demonstrated it in this war with our great production. But we have to have planned economy with the right kinds of markets and improved standards of living."

"The house of freedom has two parts, a foundation of political rights and raised on that foundation, a structure of equal social and economic opportunities for all," David Lewis, C.C.F. national secretary, declared Friday night at the Newmarket town hall.

"We have the foundation and on it, the C.C.F. would erect the (Page 7, Col. 2)

NAVY LEAGUE TAG DAY IS ON SATURDAY, MAY 26

This week Newmarket is asked to remember the boys of the navy and merchant marine by contributing to the funds of the Navy League. Last year Newmarket gave over $1,300 and the need is greater than ever this year.

All are asked to support the tag day on Saturday and the appeal made by F. E. Edwards for personal contributions.

Bowlers Open Season With Welcome, June 1

Due to unfavorable weather conditions, pre-season plans of the Newmarket Lawn Bowling club had to be changed. The special meeting and welcome to new bowlers, formerly scheduled for May 16, will be held on Friday evening at 7 p.m. sharp, June 1. This will be old and new members' night and will open with trebles. Each skip is asked to get in touch with his own players and be there on time.

This will be a tournament of three eight-end games. Following is the draw with the players: Giovannelli, Cockburn, Little, sk., green two; Bender, Law, Luck, sk., and Booth, Jones, P. King, sk., green four; Galbraith, Goring, Boyd, sk., and Courtney, Large, Doyle, sk., green seven; Todd, Pritchard, Mordison, sk., and Gibney, Geer, Manning, sk., green six; Sloss, Stark, Budd, and Bryce, Cain, L. Bell, green ten;

Morrison, McCaffrey, Helmer, sk., and Meyers, Whyte, Brown, sk., green nine; Syne, Peters, Brereton, sk., and Cotton, Cumber, L. Rose, sk., green eight; Wainman, VanderVoort, Chantler, sk., Hulst, Stan Smith, Jolley, sk., green five; Gibson, Bastedo, S. Rose, sk., K. Bain, Flett, Willis, sk., green three.

Refreshments will be served after the second game and a special invitation has been extended to Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales and the town council to be the guests of the club.

For many months, the thought has been entertained by the Christian church of installing equipment for broadcasting sacred music from the church steeple. This possibility was demonstrated on Sunday, May 13, when a memorial broadcast was initiated by Wm. Curtis and sponsored by a Toronto bread company.

The broadcast was so well received that church officials decided last week to have this type of equipment permanently installed as a war memorial in honor of the boys of Newmarket and surrounding district who have paid the supreme sacrifice in the service of their country.

It was planned that this memorial be installed as soon as the equipment was available and that it be known as the Newmarket Memorial broadcast. It is planned to feature sacred music preceding the morning and evening services each Sunday. The program of music is scheduled to start this Sunday at 11 a.m.

It was further thought that this equipment could be effectively used to convey the message of the church to the people of the town on Saturday evenings. It was felt that this proposition could be best carried out by inter-denominational groups working together and thereby providing an outlet for Christian service to all who wished to avail themselves of the opportunity.

WED 35 YEARS
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Travis, Andrew St., entertained a few friends on Monday evening, the occasion of their 35th wedding anniversary.

BROADCAST MUSIC
Organ music was played through a broadcasting system in the Trinity United church Sunday morning and evening prior to the services last Sunday.

In Passing

A distinctive note was struck at the dinner and entertainment for Newmarket servicemen which was sponsored by the rehabilitation committee and council at the Citizen-Soldier club Monday when Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales declared that the town looks to the returning veterans for leadership in community affairs. Dr. Dales made this statement after commenting that Newmarket boys had seen much of the world, they had had the chance to see what was wrong with other systems and what could be improved in our own.
He rounded off his talk by promising support for that leadership in community activity.

It is often said that the men and women overseas are fighting for more than the defence of their native land. They are fighting to bring into being a better world, a world of security and peace. There is room in any community for steps in that direction, no matter how small. To offer practical encouragement towards that objective is a sounder recognition of the gratitude owing men and women of the forces than just words of thanks.

The women who served dinner at the Citizen-Soldier club did a grand job—and this comes from the guests, usually the severest critics.

This Sunday saw part of the annual exodus of cottagers from the city to the lake. Favored by good weather, the cars passed in a more or less steady stream towards the lake. Cramped into the rear seats were supplies of all sorts while in many cases, cars pulled trailers on which rested the family boat with a new coat of paint, ready for a summer in the water.

An example of what a community can accomplish when it works towards a common cause is the Board of Trade Memorial Site fund in Aurora.
From a slender beginning, the fund has grown until at present, a total of over $1,000 has been raised. Everyone in Aurora has played a part in raising that fund, from giving salvage paper to contributing coat hangers, and each one will be able to share in the pride of its final accomplishment.

The way things are shaping up in the riding of York North, it looks as if the three parties are going to make it an enthusiastic contest. The candidates have been touring the riding and each has a large number of speaking engagements ahead of him yet. Public interest is strong and the vote should be the largest in many years.

50 YEARS AGO

From The Era and Express files,
May 24, 1895.

The steady rain all Saturday night gave the ground a thorough soaking. A portion of the embankment on Huron St., just east of the cheese factory, gave away on Sunday, requiring the attention of Chief Anderson to guard the place against accident.
It will take about 30 loads of earth to fill it up again.

Owing to his intended successor at Keswick changing his mind and removing to Michigan, Dr. J. H. Wesley has decided to remain where he is instead of removing to Newmarket.

Though last Saturday morning was cold and raw, turning to rain in the afternoon, there was a good crowd in town. Between the hours of 9 and 10.30 a.m.
there were sold on the market more than 700 dozen eggs and over a ton of fresh butter. Eggs were sold at 9 and 9½ cents and butter from 12½ to 14 cents a pound. Potatoes were plentiful at 35 cents a bag.

The spacious grounds of ex-
Mayor Cane will be ornamented in future by a dandy flag-staff.
The raising took place on Tuesday evening.

The Talagoos have arranged

Excelsiors of Brampton.

The bad spot on Main St. has at last been repaired by putting in a tile drain and filling with broken stone.

The new crossing at the cemtery gate is an improvement.

part of the war was over and enjoying Nelson Eddy singing
"Tramp, tramp, tramp along the highways," when an unearthly shriek shattered the calm, and Mother looking pale, asked
"What was that?"

The sounds, for they were continuing, came from immediately behind me, so I looked there to behold a fearsome sight. Monty had climbed to the back of my chair to untie my apron strings—
a favorite occupation by the way —and had got his head through the spars and one foot caught in a narrow opening.

I surveyed the scene with dismay—would I have to saw the spars apart, and maybe decapitate Monty in the process, or cut off his foot or—

"Do something—and quick!"
said Mother, and on my inquiring with some little heat what she would suggest, she merely said, not very helpfully, "How would I know—he's your cat."

Which to tackle first—the head or the foot—that was the question, and all the while the shrieks and the writhings went on.

"Well," thought I, "the head's the biggest, so, shutting my ears to the ensuing yells and my feelings to scratches and bites I pushed and shoved, and at last got the head free, and if anyone cares to tell me how a cat can get its head INTO an opening without apparent difficulty and then be absolutely helpless to get it out again, I'd appreciate it."

hanging head down, by one small foot, twisted in a tiny opening, which isn't fair to Monty.

This was a worse job than the head, for now he was free to bite and scratch and a lovely time was had by all as I tried to ease the imprisoned foot, while Mother said she couldn't bear his cries and couldn't I hurry, and Monty left no doubt in anyone's mind as to what HE thought.

But at last he was free and retired, limping, to sulk under the table, and I collapsed exhausted into a chair and wondered why I ever wanted a cat.

Presently there was a hearing. Even before I heard anything, Monty was at the door, telling me that his mother was there. And there she was carrying a large object. "Mother," I yelled, "she's found another kitten or stolen it or something?"
"Nonsense," said Mother, "we cats know all the kittens around here." But even she was shaken as Woolly walked past her in a dignified way, and deposited her burden on the floor.

"It's a rabbit," I cried, "a half-grown rabbit."

Woolly, having done her good deed for the day, sat down and looked hopefully at the pantry door—she always gets a bit of meat or fish for pay when she catches things—except birds which she rarely catches and is never allowed to keep.

So she got her pay and we watched Monty. With careful steps he approached the rabbit, then started back. Over and over he did this, but strange to say, he never went nearer and as Woolly didn't want it either, we disposed of it.

But it's a different story if Woolly brings a mouse as she does every day. We never let them torture it, but when it's dead they have a glorious romp with it before it goes the way of all mice.

Monty will fetch any small object you throw for him and play hide and seek and shake hands, and, as he isn't three months old, we think his education is quite advanced.

Monty's voice is very like a tin whistle at the present time, but we hope as he grows older
it will develop into a high soprano.

I had intended to write about the flower and bird talk I heard last week but that will have to wait as I've done what so many have asked me to do—told of the cats.

Per Ton of Grain?

Alberta experiments, with best Western grain, show that it takes 1,050 lbs. of grain, fed alone, to take a hog from weaning to market. So 1 ton of grain fed alone barely produces 2 market hogs.

Hundreds of practical Canadian hog raisers, in actual feeding, have taken their hogs from weaning to market on an average of 600 lbs. of a mixture of chop and Purina Hog Chow. THEY market 4 hogs from a ton of grain plus between 3 and 4 bags of Hog Chow—and the 2 extra hogs bring in nearly 4 times what the Hog Chow cost them.

Rain, rain go away, has been the cry of all sportsmen this month as old Jupiter Pluvius really turned over his watering can and let us humans have it. Softball and baseball schedules have been turned topsy-turvy and even soccer found it necessary to postpone games. Racing drew the first good day in ten and drew a big crowd, but would have gone on in any case, even though the track was a sea of mud. Too early and too late is the cry of most sports fans in regards to league schedules and the delay will do no one any particular harm.

Well, it looks as if Mons. Harry Hatch is due to repeat in the running of the King's Plate next Saturday. Uttermost came through a tough grind in grand style and proved himself equally good in mud as on a fast track. He will be a natural favorite but if it's money you want to make it will be hardly worth the effort to make your way to the wicket as the price will be exceedingly short.

John Stuart won himself $2,500 as his hopeful, The Sheriff, came home in the other half on the Plate bracket. The Stuart gelding will be tough to beat next Saturday. Last year the horses who did well in the Plate trials didn't come through in the actual running of the race and it might be the same this year. Keep your eyes peeled on Pat Fuller and Hemjohn next Saturday.

Norman Heise, former Newmarket-Aurora boy, now a successful Toronto business man, has invaded the racing field this season and judging from the progress being made on his farm below Maple, it would seem a certainty this old boy will be heard from on the tracks the next few years. Norm is a brother of Aurora's A.P. "Perc" Heise and in his younger days was prominent in lacrosse

Old Faithful...that's our Ford!*Back of Ford dependability
...the Ford V-8 Engine

ARMY MEN demand a lot from the machines they drive. They have found the Ford V-8 Engine has stamina for tough work, can slog vehicles through where no peacetime truck would ever be asked to go—and still keep them advancing.

Back home, you'll find this same affection shown by owners of Fords that are growing old in civilian service. Their V-8 Engines continue to serve them faithfully, carrying on year after year with the same dependable power, the same saving of fuel, with low expense for repairs and service.

And the Ford of the future will carry on this tradition of economy, reliability and long life. Into it will go a V-8 Engine that has been refined and improved as a result of its battle-testing on the war fronts of the world. Its flashing performance will outshine even the Ford V-8 of other years. It will establish new records in operating economy.

and baseball in North York. Mr. Heise has acquired the Rumble farm and started a breeding stable and boarding home for horses. His main hope for this season is a two-year-old called Williegivitt. Williegivitt is an entry in all the leading two-year-old stakes and the 1946 King's Plate. He's the off-spring of the great Bunty Lawless and Lace Shawl. The dam, Lace Shawl, still holds the seven-furlong record for Thorncliffe track and of course Bunty Lawless' record is too well known to need mention. The name is an appropriate one.

Willie Morrissey, well-known Toronto sportsman who sold most of his stable to John Stuart upon his retirement from the racing world after winning the King's Plate twice, gave Norman the bay filly shortly after she was foaled, so the moniker speaks for itself. The Heise colors are silver and orange. Silver jacket with orange shoulders and silver cap with orange peak.

Percy Rickard, well-known Canadian trainer, has a flock of horses at the Heise farm which will see action this year too. Present pride of the Heise stables is a brand new colt whose sire was none other than Willie the Kid and Norm already has him ticketed for the 1948 King's Plate. It takes three or four years of investment and breeding before a racing stable can be built. Without one, one goes out in the market and purchases a string of bangtails and the Heise plan, while slower, is less expensive and just as likely to get big results in the long run. We shall all watch with interest Mr. Heise's debut in the racing world.

From overseas comes news of some of our former Aurora junior hockeyists. Cpl. Mervyn Broughton of Newmarket was wounded on April 17 by shrapnel which nicked his shoulder and body and he is now recuperating in hospital. Merv is 23 and was a member of the Aurora junior team in 1939, his first year, in which he saw not too much action. The next two years he performed with Newmarket juniors and in the 1941-42 campaign he performed brilliantly for Aurora until an eye injury in Unionville put him out of action and also dashed the hopes for a championship for the Aurora team.

He enlisted in the fall of that year and was mostly stationed at Brockville and Camp Ipperwash as an instructor before proceeding overseas last December. He is married now and his wife resides in Toronto.

Married too, with his wife and baby in Canada while he is still overseas, is Frank Carr, sensational young goalie and former Richmond Hill boy. Frank wed an English girl and the young couple have a handsome seven-months-old daughter named Sheila who is the pride and joy of grandpa, Lieut. Commander Bill Carr, who was on hand this month from Ottawa to meet these two new additions to the Carr clan. Frank has been on service since late 1940 and has been overseas three years.

In Germany is Fat James, husky defenceman and lacrosse player de luxe. "Jesse", as the boys around Brampton-Mimico call him, went overseas with the 30th battery and has won himself a couple of hooks. The Bradford boy is highly regarded by his pals. Stan Evans, former Newmarket junior puckchaser, latterly a member of the 13X Bombers and the 1945 Camp Borden Flyers team as well as being a crackerjack softballer and swimmer, has been posted to Newfoundland by the R.C.A.F. in recent weeks.

At Camp Ipperwash is Lieut. Jimmy Holmes, who as a member of the 1943 Newmarket camp track team, captured the M.D. 2 sprints championships and later went on to rule the cinderpath at Camp Borden. Jimmy transferred to infantry and following a conversion course, has been posted for seasoning at the western Ontario centre.

Hitting the softball headlines this week is an Uxbridge girl well known in district girls' softball circles. We refer to Jean Channon, who the past two years has been one of the leading hitters and hurriers in the Toronto Danforth league. Jean has moved up to the top flight competition, having been signed by the famous Sunday Morning Class team at Sunnyside and she is slated to fill the shoes of the great Thelma Golden Fidler who for years has been Canada's No. 1 pitching star in feminine softball. It is a big order but those in the know claim the Uxbridge gal can do the jump successfully. Rumor persists, however, that Mrs. Fidler will again come out of retirement but in any case, Miss Channon's big chance is at hand and our contention that this district can produce just as good girl athletes as elsewhere is again borne out.

While we have not as yet obtained the full line-up of the Unionville A.C. team which is performing in the Toronto Denton league this year, we learn Jackie Watson, ex-Markham junior hockey star who played with Toronto Army last winter, is handling the catching assignment with Charlie Blundall and Hacking doing the chucking. Vic Meharg, former husky defenceman of both Markham junior and intermediate teams, is parked at the shortstop post and in the games to date, has been performing sensationally.

As we predicted earlier, the York Depot team, composed of army and navy personnel, has called on all the centres in the district. Murray Dowey, who pitched for Brantford camp last year against Newmarket, has been listed as one of the hurriers. Dowey pitched Depot to the M.D. 2 championships last season too and before enlisting was rated the best young prospect in the Beaches league.

We learn that Ken Doyle, formerly with Willowdale and Richmond Hill, a veteran tosser, is back in action again. This season he is with Roneyes in the Bellwoods circuit. Doyle pitched against Newmarket camp two years ago in the Davisville senior league. On the same team are Clare Walsh, who played junior hockey for Toronto navy in the district O.H.A. group two years ago, and Hank Goldapp, former Toronto Leafs-New York Rangers hockeyist.

All Stong, former Hill lacrosse goalie and softball outfielder, had the honor of getting the special button awarded to the 1,000th blood donor at Richmond Hill last week. Alf, who still plays the odd game of ball, has been a steady contributor with blood plasma and is in the double figure class by now. Those in charge of the clinic at the Hill can take justifiable pride in their record in this field of war work.

Bobby Schnurr, one of the outstanding members of the Toronto navy team in the service hockey league, is just as good at baseball as hockey, in fact some say better. He is slated to play second base for Mahers in the Toronto senior league this summer. Bob formerly played with Waterloo and with Welland and last summer at the Niagara Peninsula (Page 4, Col. 5)

Liberal Working Plan

for Full Post-War Employment...

For Veterans—$750,000,000 to get them started in good paying jobs in industry, on the land or in business for themselves as each of them chooses.

Working—$400,000,000 to finance the biggest building scheme this country has ever known.

Family Allowances—$250,000,000 a year to lessen the burdens of parenthood and to equalize the opportunities of young Canadians for success and happiness.

Expert Credits—We've got to have expert credit to go to have jobs. Your Liberal Government has arranged to finance war-wrecked countries who will be good customers later.

Industrial Development Bank—Your Liberal Government has set up machinery to help enterprising Canadians develop new business.

Farm Loans—One man in every three in Canada works on the farm. To help them get better equipment, your Liberal Government has arranged that they can borrow the money they need for better working and living conditions.

Price Policy—The Liberal Government's policy is that when farmers and fishermen prosper, so do other Canadians. It has therefore taken action to put a floor under the prices of farm and fishery products.

Reduction of Taxes—Your Liberal Government believes in jobs first. To this end, taxes will come down to free spending power.

These are just some of many steps in the Liberal Government's Working Plan to ensure full employment after the war. In addition, it has stimulated tremendous private savings in Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates, put through Unemployment Insurance, set up a special Department of Reconstruction staffed by experts. In fact all its policies are directed to the same end—a "big and stable level of employment and income."

JOBS! Jobs with bright futures for the young men and women coming out of the Armed Services with the best part of their lives before them! Jobs for all! Jobs with big prospects and good, reliable money that will keep its buying power! After all the hard work, sacrifice and self-discipline which has brought us through the war, the people of this country have earned a brighter future in a better, juster, grander Canada than we have ever known!

LOOK how much Canadians have accomplished, here on the home front, even without the energy and initiative of all the vigorous young people now in uniform, and their zest for daring! What is there Canada can't do with them back on the home team? Why, with their help, we Canadians are headed full speed for the greatest period in our history!

THE all-important question today is the civilian staff-work and leadership which we call "government." The Liberals have a working plan. It's big and bold! Parts of it are outlined for your judgment in the left-hand column. It has been designed with the aid of the keenest minds in every phase of industry, agriculture, labour and learning. The plan will work. In fact it is already bringing results. It will continue to do so! The Liberals can tell you this with confidence because they have had successful experience in operating nationwide plans.

VOTE for your Liberal candidate. Make sure the team which made this plan for full employment shall see it through—and win the peace!

WHITCHURCH TOWNSHIP

$12,000 Spent On Roads By Whitchurch To Date

It was disclosed at Whitchurch council meeting on May 12 that road expenditures to date this year total $12,000, which is a reminder that we had one of the worst winters in history for snow, and that a real effort was made to keep the roads open. However, the road appropriation is $20,000 and it is believed that the remaining $8,000 will about care for the summer road work.

The department of highways requested council to estimate any amount of spray they might require, since the department can supply them with Elephant Brand ammonium sulphate for weed control. The problem, as council saw it, is the securing of a spraying outfit, and if this can be accomplished weeds will be sprayed this summer. The cost varies from $17 to $30 a mile depending on the density of growth. Councillor Les. Harper said a bit of spraying done last year proved highly successful despite the fact that it rained just after the spray went on.

H. Roberts quoted a price of $125 per yard for crushed gravel, and he will be asked to do certain work when weather conditions permit.

Austin Yake asked council to deal with a long-standing account sent in by Herb. Law of Lemonville for $14.40 for cutting weeds last year. Yake declared he believed the work was done, even though the authority was not just regular, and he thought it ought to be paid for.

Council was unanimous that such a bill could not be paid unless some authority was given for the work. The road foreman had reported that he gave no authority, so council refused to recognize the amount.

Lorne Taylor was present to enquire about his claim for cattle mauled and chewed by dogs and about one animal killed and one still missing, and believed to be in the mire. Since the valuator's report had not been filed, Mr. Taylor was asked to call again.

The insurance adjusters reported against paying a claim for H. Odgen's car which was in collision with Stouffville Planing Mill truck on icy roads around Lake Musselman.

The department of highways approved of the township appropriation by-law for $20,000 for road work this year.

Public School Inspector McKillop's report on the distribution of $525.90 Clergy Reserves fund was approved and this is on the basis of teacher's salary this year instead of on pupil attendance.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT

BREAKS PROBATION SOLDIER SENTENCED

Charged with violating the conditions of his probation, Pte. Donald Lockhart, Newmarket camp, was brought back to magistrate's court here on May 15 and sentenced to two months' hard labor.

Lieut. R. J. Honey of the administrative staff of the Newmarket camp told Magistrate W. F. Woodliffe that the 18-year-old soldier had been found guilty in Newmarket court on Wednesday, May 9, on a charge of breaking and entering the Red and White store in Newmarket. Because he had no previous criminal record his worship had given him a suspended sentence and placed him on parole in the custody of his commanding officer. Lieut. Honey stated that the defendant had paid the $10 restitution as required by the court and had been allowed to return to his troop.

The witness said that on the same day, May 9, after returning to his troop, Pte. Lockhart left the camp without the permission of his superior officer and remained "A.W.O.L." for two days and six hours before being taken into custody at Gravenhurst by the military police.

"Was he entitled to leave the camp?" asked his worship.

"No, he was not entitled to leave the camp without the consent of the officer," replied Lieut. Honey.

Questioned by Magistrate Woodliffe, the accused, who had pleaded guilty to the charge, admitted that he did not have permission to leave the camp and that he was acquainted with the conditions of his parole.

Asked his opinion of the offence, Crown Attorney Leigh Armstrong said that he had no sympathy with the defendant. "The accused received considerable consideration last week in court and I'm not sorry for him now," he stated.

"I am now sentencing you on the charge of breaking and entering and you now go to jail for two months' hard labor," Magistrate Woodliffe told the soldier.

Pleading guilty to a charge of stealing a radio aerial, Pte. N. Rush, Camp Borden, was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation in the custody of his superior officer for three months.

According to Harry Goodman of the Goodman Auto Wreckers, he had in his yard a car belonging to the John O'Brien estate and that at the time that it had been towed to his garage it had a radio aerial attached to it. He stated that he first noticed the aerial missing on April 1. Questioned further by the crown the witness stated that the car had been in collision with a train and the owner had been killed. He identified the aerial presented in court as belonging to the O'Brien car.

County Constable Ronald Watt told his worship that he investigated the theft and questioned the accused at Camp Borden on May 4. The defendant, he said, readily admitted stealing the aerial on April 1 when he was looking over the car in the Goodman Wrecking yard.

Lieut. Honey said that Pte.

Rush had been absent without leave from the army for 14 hours. This was his only military offence.

"I am allowing you one chance but I warn you it is unusual to allow a person a second chance," his worship told the accused. "If you get into trouble you can expect to go to jail."

At the request of the defendant, Walter Comer, Brownhill, Magistrate Woodliffe adjourned a charge of assault for one week.

According to John Chapelle, North Gwillimbury, he had rented a pasture and on May 6 had been leading his cows to the enclosure when he encountered the defendant leading his horse up the road. He stated that the defendant claimed that he had the right to put his horse in the pasture and tried to drive his cows away. When he told Mr. Comer that he had rented the pasture the latter hit him with a piece of wood, he said.

Mrs. Mary Morton, sister of the defendant and owner of the pasture, said that she had inherited the land and paid the taxes. She said that she had rented the property to Mr. Chapelle for the year and that her brother had no right to enter.

Mr. Comer said that his son had rented the pasture and that he would bring the lease or a witness to court next week to prove his right to the use of the pasture. He said that Mr. Chapelle struck him first.

Other cases disposed of by Magistrate Woodliffe were: Harry Hudson, Sutton, found guilty on a charge of failing to have a driver's license and George Hudson, found guilty of allowing an unlicensed driver to operate his car. In each case the defendant was fined $10 and costs. County Constable William Hill laid the charges. On a charge of illegal parking in Newmarket, George Beckett, R. R. 3, Newmarket, was fined one dollar and costs. Constable G. W. Curtis laid the information.

DOWN THE CENTRE

baseball centre attracted the attention of scouts from the professional leagues.

Which is more valuable, silver or a golf ball? Actually most of us would probably pick the metal for our choice but silver at present is only bringing 71 cents an ounce, whereas with golf balls it is not so much a question of price as getting them. A good golf ball costs anywhere from $1.25 upwards and weighs 1.6 ounces. So figure it out. Silver for which men once killed and battled it out with brains on the stock exchange has now been replaced by the little white pill in value. Kolf, by the way, was once the name by which golf was known. The game, contrary to popular belief, was not originated in Scotland but in the low countries, Holland and Belgium, where it was played on ice. It was first brought to Scotland by sea captains in the 14th century. In 1457 so popular had golf become with the Scots that the parliament of the day found it necessary to pass a law prohibiting golf during archery practice because archery, then the national sport, was essential to national defence. In 1491, James IV of Scotland outlawed "golfe" entirely but later became an addict himself and by national inclination the game continued. In 1592 the old law was replaced and golf was made legal except on Sundays and then was changed to read "on Sundays in times of sermon". That was the first futile effort to handcuff golfers in Scotland.

Mary Queen of Scots, was the first woman golfer of whom any mention is made and from her comes the word caddie. The queen, who was educated in France, referred to the boy who served her on the golf course as "caddie", meaning someone learning the game. The pronunciation was "cad-day", which came simply to be caddie. While on the subject of the "royal and ancient game", it is to be noted that Ralph Webb, former professional at the Aurora Golf club, has been re-engaged for his fourth term as manager of the Scarborough club where many of the leading tournaments are played.

Buck Davies, the good forward of Toronto army, has proved himself equally good on the alleys, winding up the season as a member of the winning foursome in the Toronto military league and getting himself a handsome trophy. Teddy Morris, coach of the navy hockey team, is apparently headed out of the service for he has been named as managing director of the Toronto Argonauts football club which will again swing into action this year after an absence from competition since the disbanding of the Big Four in 1941. It will be quite a battle on the football scene this fall as the O.R.F.U. which has carried the mail and kept the game going in wartime is pretty well established in the hearts of the fans in all cities and the wealthier Big Four teams will not find it so easy to take up from where they left off.

Bob Gamble, who owns Bond Lake and is a resident of the district, is still connected with the Argonaut club and is also president of the Big Four. Morris, who handled the navy team in wartime, will likely get most of his players from the services as well as up and coming high school kids and the same situation will apply in Hamilton, Montreal and Ottawa.

Intercollegiate football, dormant since 1940, will also be presented to the fans this fall.

Argos announce a roving football coach will be sent around to the various high schools and prep schools of the province to aid in coaching teams and showing the latest tricks to the boys. This will be especially valuable to teams like Newmarket high, Pickering and St. Andrew's.

It was with pleasure that sports fans learned last week that Fil-Lieut. Donald Webster, nephew of the Misses Lois and Amy Webster of Aurora, has been released from a German prison camp where he had been since November, 1941. Don attended Aurora high school in his last year and won the school cross-country running championship. In his first year at University of Toronto he made a position on the Varsity football team, the first Aurora boy since the days of Eric Soanes to do so. He interrupted his university career to enter the R.C.A.F. and will presumably go back to school on his return to Canada.

Prep school track championships were cancelled because of a wet track at Upper Canada College last Saturday and because of studies, cadet work and early closing, the competition will not be held this spring. This week the St. Andrew's lads held their annual track and field championships with some nifty performances being turned in.

Like most rumors coming out of Germany the past few years, the one that had ex-heavyweight champion Max Schmeling as being killed turned out to be a dud. Schmeling is now a prisoner in Allied hands. It can be taken as read that he is one has been that will not be resurrected for future bouts. Following Gene Tunney's retirement in 1928, Jack Sharkey met Young Stribling and emerged as victor. Schmeling, "the black Uhlan", had beaten Johnny Risko and Paulino Uzuquidum and now matched with Sharkey and on June 12, 1930, he gained a decision in the fourth round when Sharkey allegedly let go with one of his famous "fouls". The New York boxing commission, a week later, by a 2-1 vote gave the title to Schmeling.

Six months later, when Max refused to meet Sharkey, he was suspended and barred from competition in New York State. Schmeling then met and defeated Stribling by a T.K.O. In June, 1932, Jack Sharkey defeated Schmeling to take the title again. Primo Carnera, now Italian wrestling champion, took the crown away from Sharkey the next year. By 1938, Joe Louis

"small business" ISN'T SO SMALL!

Ordinarily one Canadian in every six gainfully employed, earns his livelihood in a "small business." It may be a farm, a store or a lumber-yard; an architect's office or a service station. Taken together, these individual enterprises provide a very substantial part of Canada's total jobs—must continue to do so after the war.

During the years ahead many people who dropped small business for war reasons will want to return to their accustomed or new ways of making a living. Thus old businesses will be revived. Many new ones will be started by returned men and people now in war industries. The commercial banks will do their part to afford assurance that no sound credit requirement need be left unserved in the field of small business.

As such businesses grow, they create additional job openings; that has been the pattern of Canadian enterprises. Most large companies began in a small way. And practically all could name some bank which played a part in their growth by providing the loans they needed to finance their day-to-day operations.

Your bank stands ready to serve businesses, small or large, well established or just starting out. Banks do not initiate such businesses—but they do furnish necessary working capital and many other forms of banking service.

By GOLDEN GLOW

Never was sunshine so welcome as on Saturday. It was so bright after 14 days of clouds and rain that we all fairly blinked! Yes, 14 days of nearly steady rain with only a very few hours of respite. The water is flowing over the waterworks dam like a spring freshet and Lions park, at the south east end, was a lake. The little stream running through it could not carry away the flow the steady downpour had caused. Memorial Park beyond on D'Arcy St., opposite St. Paul's Anglican church, was the delight of the children on their way home from school on Thursday as I passed the corner. I was interested, too, for it is quite unique with its simulated sand bags representing a trench in the last war. I think Friday was the worst rainy day of all. It just seemed down with never a let-up all day. Everything was sodden. That old-fashioned word was about the only way to describe everything. The water dripped off the milkman and the baker's man as they went their rounds. Children in rubber boots splashed along the ditches and measured the depth of the water. Mothers with babies had to forego their daily walks and give their little ones an airing on sheltered verandahs. But, oh what a difference on Saturday! I looked out my bedroom window before I went to bed Friday night and there was the welcome, blessed sight of the moon shining in the west, a nearly cloudless sky, so I was eager to look out next morning. What a different world! Nature quickly took charge of the situation and soon trees and shrubs that hung over all week just saturated with moisture, stood up straight again and the flowers that hung their heads for weeks, at a standstill for growth, fairly beamed and smiled and flirted with "Old Sol", who again took charge of our poor old earth. What a relief to go without rubbers, umbrella and raincoat! The sun never shone so brightly. The spring flowers that would have ordinarily been over a month ago, stood up again bravely, the trees shone so green and glossy and the grass was never so vivid a color.

We all appreciate an occasional rainy day but to have a whole month of gray days was too much for everybody. The archbishop at the annual Synod meeting last week in Toronto asked Divine aid in the situation, for the crops are in jeopardy. Those who made gardens during our summer weather in March will have it all to do again.

Wait! Am I wrong about 14 days without the sun? Sure I am. For did it not clear up on Peace Sunday after May 13, for we did not have an umbrella when we heard the beautiful peace program from the tower of the Christian church on the hill. I wonder what the pigeons that live in the tower thought of it—oh, and here's more good news besides the sunshine—the oriole, that lovely harbinger of summer-to-come, is back with us. Things may look dark and gloomy but "God's in His heaven, all's right with the world".

Make School Community Centre -- O.E.A. Speaker

Printed below is the report presented by Principal H. A. Jackson of the Ontario Education Association convention held in Toronto last month and which was read to the public school board at its last meeting. A second report, written by Vice-Principal Evelyn Denne, will be published as soon as possible. The report of Principal Jackson follows:

By PRINCIPAL H. A. JACKSON
King George School
Report of address by Dr. H. Y. McClusky, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, on the subject of "The School as a Community Centre," before the Ontario Educational Association convention in Toronto.

The speaker prefaced his remarks by emphasizing that education goes on outside of school as well as in school. Important education goes on before the age of 5 or 6 and after 16; before 8 o'clock in the morning and after 5 o'clock in the afternoon. What a need for a good home environment! The home may be a stronger educational factor than the school.

Educational institutions consist of libraries, museums, art galleries, music centres, factories, stores, churches — the key institutions — service clubs, lodges, home and school organizations and all educational agencies. The schools should recognize the value of all these as educational agencies. Most of the activities named above may be conducted in our schools. In this age of ferment, the speaker said that he never had more faith in education than at the present time.

Education is a more powerful influence than any other agency. In proof of this, Hitler's youth training was cited as an example.

The school should be the place for nurseries, the rendezvous of adults for adult discussions, a place for the presentation of the drama and the showing of pictures, a place for crafts and shop work, for the conduct of a cafeteria, for numerous social affairs. To make the school more attractive, line the corridors and the walls of the class-rooms with beautiful, colorful pictures. In the erection of new buildings, wings could be added to be used for the display of the work of the school. In the more ambitious projects, there could be moveable walls and tables and chairs and libraries open to the public.

In the school of the future, some members of the staff will have to be specially trained, not only to be good for teaching grade work but competent to meet and instruct adults.

A report of the address by Dr. J. J. Lee, Wayne University, Detroit, Mich., at the O.E.A. convention. Dr. Lee spoke on "Post War Demands and Changes in Education."

To obtain the greatest good from our educational institutions, the public at large must have a deep concern in all educational problems, this to take the form of a genuine moral support and an increased financial support. The speaker pointed out that during war we readily spend $25,000 to train a pilot but that only $50 or less per year is spent to educate a pupil, the most treasured asset in the country. Politics, it was said, in many instances create a hampering influence to the public support that could be given and that many are anxious to give. Politics should enter the picture only in so far as their integrity remains unquestioned. Freedom from vested interests is essential.

Education must be the first concern of the state. In this connection, the teaching and practice of health is of paramount importance. Educators are urged to look to social and religious institutions, not only for support but for inspiration, also. These institutions, in return, must have the support of educators.

Education must be one of the major social institutions because the schools prepare youth to live and the business of living is, or should be, the greatest concern of everyone — to live peacefully, to have a large measure of give and take to "grow up" in mind as well as body, to try to see the other's point of view, to exercise fairness, in short to become a good citizen. The conflict of labor and capital, the speaker said, results from lack of education or from the wrong education.

The effectiveness of our schools may be enhanced by the placement and guidance facilities which it is possible to give. This applies more particularly to secondary schools, although, to some extent, it might be applied to elementary schools as well.

Extension and revision in school are needed, for one thing, to prevent crime. Statistics show, according to the speaker, the startling facts that 1 in 100 ends up a criminal; that 2 in 100 break mentally.

Curtis.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cook, Aurora, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Cook and Velma.
Mr. and Mrs. Bastedo, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jackson and David and Mrs. Lunness, Toronto, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Iredale. Mr. Iredale returned to Toronto with them.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walton spent Sunday in Teston with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Murray.

Era and Express classified columns fill many needs.

We need to know the needs and traits of our pupils. One way to assist teachers in this is to have a smaller pupil-teacher ratio. Educate the child for what he can do. It is futile to try to teach a child to do something of which he is not capable. Twenty percent of children are on the border line or below average. Diagnostic treatment is necessary and remedial measures are required. Each child has the right to amount to something. Give guidance with patience. Accept nothing but the best a child can do. Help him in his social adjustment. "See through Johnny. Then see Johnny through."

REMEMBER?

POTENTIALLY one of the most sensational novels of the season, Lester Cohen's COMING HOME, $3.75, Macmillan, is a rich, satisfying big book. It tells the poignant love story of a marine who came home to the girl he loved and of the battle they had to fight on the home front. There is something irresistible about those two naive but utterly honest young people, bucking the whole corrupt machinery of a big city—and coming out on top. The Retail Bookstore says of it: "It has a drive that is hard to withstand. Admittedly no book for the squeamish, it will interest thousands of readers... a picture of political skulduggery beside which A Lion in the Streets seems Pollyanna-ish."

THE MODERN HOME MEDICAL ADVISER (McClelland and Stewart) is recognized by medical men as being the leading book of its kind. The material in its nine hundred pages packed with medical information was compiled by twenty-four world-famous doctors, edited by Morris Fishbein, Fellow of the American Society and editor of its famous journal. The book tells how to treat, recognize and control contagious and infectious diseases, first-aid methods, child-birth, etc.

A FLATTERING FOUNDATION to a dainty summer costume, Du Barry Leg Make Up gives the suave appearance of the finest hosiery and at a fraction of the cost. Even before silk hosiery became scarce, women were beginning to appreciate the comfort and "fitting" smartness of the stock ingless fashion, and as a result Du Barry has devoted the skill back of a celebrated cosmetic name to perfecting a "stockingless stocking" for women of exacting discrimination.

THERE IS MORE Sloan's Liniment being manufactured in Canada than any other liniment. Sloan's success story can be written in five words... "quicker acting and more soothing." Sloan's summons healing to the area where muscular pains attack, by nature's own method of stimulated circulation. It is not necessary to rub affected areas with Sloan's, merely pat it on gently and allow the action to follow immediately.

PROGRESSIVE-CONSERVATIVE

EARL TOOLE

Earl Toole has had more experience in public service than any other Federal candidate in North York. During the past ten years he has contested many positions of importance and has never been defeated.

HE STATES:

"I do not intend to make a whole lot of rash promises but if I am chosen on June 11 I will give of my very best in the interests of all people. I will discriminate against no one. Our national leader is capable, sincere and a man of his word. He plans carefully before he says what he can or will do. His decisions may, from thence forward, be taken as positive facts. I am firmly convinced that he is the greatest humanitarian and the finest man for the people of all walks of life in Canada since Sir John A. MacDonald and Sir Wilfred Laurier. I look forward to the honor of serving you, as well as to the honor of serving with this great man."

JOHN BRACKEN

WINNERS HAVE CHOICE OF FINE PROGRAMS

Seventeen correct answers were sent in to last week's classified ad contest. As there was a typographical error, which made the first two words wrong, eight correct answers were accepted.

Pauline Crocker of Harry's Dry Goods drew the five winners. They are: Mrs. E. L. Joyce, Mrs. W. C. Blight, Mrs. H. J. Lowe, Mrs. Lucy Blair and Ross Fisher, all of Newmarket.

These five winners may see the technicolor production, "A Song To Remember, starring Paul Muni and Merle Oberon, either Tuesday, May 29, or Thursday, May 31. They may pick up their passes any evening at the Strand theatre.

The correct answers were: repair, capacity, suitable, frame, enclosed, corner, opening, hardwood, country and enamel.

THIS WEEK'S CONTEST

The five double pass winners this week may see Here Come The Waves, starring Bing Crosby, Betty Hutton and Sonny Tufts, and Dancing in Manhattan, starring Fred Brady and Jeff Donnell, on Tuesday, June 6, or Marriage Is A Private Affair, starring Lana Turner and John Hodiak, and The Imposter, starring Ellen Drew and Jean Gabin, on Thursday, June 7.

Contestants are asked to send their entries in on a slip of paper two and a half inches by four and a half inches (2 1/2"x4 1/2"). Only one entry will be accepted from any one household or family and the entry must be in the contestant's own handwriting.

Entries must reach The Era and Express office by 9.30 Tuesday morning.

Two words have been joined together again this week and then scrambled. Here they are: WUOETUDRENDE, SHGEGF, UOPORRUP, TUGUAUREGF, ILISIGEGARHCDCNFP, OFSFS, BUTEIRELD.

In Memoriam

Hadden—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Mrs. Wm. Hadden, who passed away May 20, 1939.
I always think of mother
Whenever things go wrong,
There's something in her memory
That helps to make me strong.
When days are long and lonely
I simply close my eyes
And vision her beside me,
So gentle, kind and wise,
Oh, what a different world we'd have
If everyone could be
Just a little more like mother,
The one God gave to me.

Sadly missed by husband and daughter, Mabel.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Ross Marchant and family wish to express their sincere thanks and gratitude to the very kind neighbors and friends for the many acts of kindness and floral tributes extended to them in the loss of a loving husband and father.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. W. Holborn and family wish to thank their many friends for their thoughtful interest and sympathy extended to them in the sudden loss of a dear husband and father. They especially thank the Rev. G. Lapp for his words of condolence.

Defence of Canada regulations in that it did not carry the name of the printer, and violated the Dominion Elections Act in that it offered $5,000 in prizes in a contest. "The contest is such as to constitute a direct bribe to the electors, an indictable offence," said Maj. Woods. "The C.C.F. has taken legal action against the magazine."

Maj. Woods said that he had become a member of the C.C.F. party when he realized that the two other parties, the Liberals and the Conservatives, appeared powerless to halt the cycle of depression. "When the C.C.F. came along in 1933, I examined its platform and philosophy. I became convinced of the sincerity of purpose behind the party," he said.

To the right to organize, we would add the right to participate in the running of the country. To the farmer, we would give security of income and thus free him from mortgage and packing companies. To the right to own our businesses, we would provide markets through purchasing power and thus free the small businessman from fear of bankruptcy. All these are contained in our cradle to the grave social security."

FORM ANGLERS' CLUB

The newly-formed Sutton Angler's Association will hold its first lake trout derby on May 24. Entrants are expected from Toronto, Island Grove, Pefferlaw and Sutton.

The association, organized to retain interest in the Lake Simcoe fishing, has Sutton fishermen as the executive. J. L. Burrows is president, George Holborn and Art Pugsley, vice-presidents, Jim Noble, secretary, and George Holborn, Sr., treasurer. Committee members are Clarence Bodley, Pefferlaw, and Ellis Pringle, Briar's Park.

Engage Two New Teachers For Aurora High School

Two new teachers to replace resignations received from members of the present staff have been engaged by the Aurora high school board. Replacing Miss Gladys Humphrys, in Latin, will be Miss Lois Spooner, who has been a member of the staff of Port Perry high school the past 13 years. A native of Manitoba and a graduate of the University of Manitoba, Miss Spooner comes highly recommended. She will also teach geography, Miss Aileen Belyea of the present staff being listed to take over the girls' P.T.

Miss Alberta Sinclair, of the staff of Cobalt high school, will replace Miss Helen Morphy in English and Art. A graduate of the University of Toronto, Miss Sinclair was a member of the staff of Sutton West continuation school for three years. Her home is in Toronto.

MAJOR TAYLOR WILL BE 82 VICTORIA DAY

Major W. H. Taylor, Wellington St., celebrates Victoria Day with his 82nd birthday. Major Taylor received two early birthday gifts last week. He was re-elected deputy-treasurer of the Royal Black Knights, Ontario West, and he heard the welcome news his grandson, WO1 Harold Taylor, a prisoner of war for 23 months, was safe.

Born in the house in which he still resides, Mr. Taylor has been setting records of one kind or another for years. He is the oldest member of Trinity Anglican church. He has been an Orangeman for 59 years and secretary of the county lodge for 40 consecutive terms. He has only missed Grand Lodge twice in that period and the 12th of July parade once. He has been clerk of the 6th division court for 33 years, and town assessor for 17 years. He served in the rebellion of '85, his two sons served in the Great War, and a son-in-law, and three grandsons serve in the present conflict.

SALE IS SUCCESS

Under the auspices of Wartime Assets Ltd., a sale of army and air force used and new equipment was held in the Aurora arena on Friday, and a large crowd was on hand.

P. F. Ryan, Toronto, and Gordon Phillips were the auctioneers and they had no difficulty finding customers. Prices were generally thought to be bargains.

Folding tables went for 50 cents, as did folding benches, and most local church and club organizations are now well stocked for the future.

Large granite stew kettles brought 75 cents, rubber ground sheets 25 cents, large winter bags $3, pup tents $6.

There were many out-of-town buyers, and in view of the fact the town council has made the arena premises available to the local R.C.O.C. Depot free of charge until next fall, it is thought likely several more such sales will be held. No figures have been issued as to the amount realized.

SUICIDE VERDICT

Angelo Lucchitta, 56, Italian market gardener who was found dead in his shack at the Holland marsh in April, died as a result of self-inflicted wounds, a coroner's jury has decided.

TEEN-AGERS CLOSE CLUB FOR SEASON

Aurora Teen-Agers held their last supervised party of the season until next fall on Friday in the high school auditorium.

"They have been an unequalled success," Councillor R. V. Smith, the sponsor, said. "The youngsters have thoroughly enjoyed themselves and teachers and parents who have attended are behind the idea. Next fall we hope to add many new features."

Teachers from Creemore continuation school visited the hop on Friday night and were impressed with the success of the Aurora plan.

CARS ARE DAMAGED

En route northward on holidays, an American tourist, Heywood C. Fisher, Buffalo, N.Y., was involved in an automobile accident late Saturday afternoon. Mr. Fisher was proceeding north on Yonge St. when his car was struck by a car driven by Calvin Preston, Vandorf, who was attempting to cross Wellington St.

The American car suffered around $100 worth of damage and was held up for a few hours for repairs. Little damage was done to the Preston car. Chief Constable Fisher Dunham and County Constable Aubrey Fleury investigated.

ELECTED TO SYNOD

Capt. S. C. Snively, Oak Ridges, was elected to the executive of the Anglican Synod, Toronto, which met last week in Toronto. In attendance at the sessions from Aurora were Rev. Canon F. J. Fife, E. R. Youngs and J. A. Goodearle.

ISABELLA RAESIDE LOVELY MAY BRIDE

Aurora United church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, May 19, when Isabella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Raeside, Aurora, became the bride of Pte. Irwin Collings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Collings, Bradford. Rev. Roy Hicks performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white with bodice of slipper satin and a skirt of net over taffeta. Her floor-length veil was caught to her head in halo effect with seed pearl trim. She carried American Beauty roses and white sweet peas.

Mrs. John Rupke, sister of the groom, was matron of honor and had chosen a blue sheer gown with a bandeau headress with blue flowers, shoulder-length veil and a bouquet of Tailsman roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Mae White and Miss Leona Vander Maaten and were gowned alike in pink sheer with bandeau headresses of pink flowers and shoulder-length veils. They carried Tailsman roses.

The best man was Mr. John Rupke, Kettleby, and the ushers were Mr. Bruce Collings, brother of the groom, and Mr. Joseph Pent, Newmarket. Mrs. A. C. A. Willis was at the organ.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. The bride's mother received wearing a blue crepe dress, white accessories and a corsage of tea roses. The groom's mother wore a tan dress, and white accessories and a corsage of tea roses.

For going away the bride wore a brown suit with blue accessories and a corsage of red roses. After a wedding trip to Parry Sound and points north they will reside in Aurora.

Out-of-town guests were from St. Mary's, Hamilton, Bradford and Newmarket.

WITH THE CHURCHES

Squadron Leader Noble Hutton, Toronto, will be the guest preacher at Aurora United church Sunday morning.

MEDICAL PRESIDENT

Dr. C. J. Devins, Aurora, who has served as president-elect of the Ontario Medical Association for the past year, was elected president of the association at the convention of the medical association held in Toronto this week. During his year as president-elect, Dr. Devins visited every medical district in the province and takes over his new post with a thorough knowledge of medical conditions in Ontario. The association has a membership of 4,500 and the doctor's work this year will entail considerable executive work but not much travelling.

MEET MAY 30

John Collingwood Reade, well known radio commentator on world affairs, will speak in Mechanics' Hall on Wednesday, May 30, on behalf of the Progressive-Conservative candidates in the riding. Earl Toole and Major "Lex" McKenzie will also address the meeting. A dance will follow.

TAKEN CHAPEL SERVICE

Rev. Henry Colton, Newmarket, took Sunday's chapel service at St. Andrew's College.

BLOOD CLINIC

Next Thursday, May 31, another blood donors' clinic will be held in the United church parlors. Local Red Cross officials point out that there is still a great and pressing need for blood plasma and with this in mind they are hoping for the biggest clinic yet.

Mr. Douglas Ratcliffe, Toronto, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bone, Newmarket, spent Sunday with Mrs. Richard Pugh.

LAC Sam Bowie, R.A.F., Mount Hope, formerly of Ayrshire, Scotland, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. James Raeside, was present for the Collings-Raeside nuptials on Saturday.

Miss Beverley Nisbet, Toronto, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Nisbet.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones, Toronto, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones.

Miss Adell Duffin, Toronto, spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Duffin.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cole spent Saturday at Queensville.

HONOR COUPLE AT SURPRISE PARTY

Members of Aurora Fire brigade gave a surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Jones last Friday evening in honor of Mrs. James Jones, who arrived from overseas last Tuesday to join her husband here.

Mrs. Jones, an English girl, was married to "Jimmy" last January when he was a member of the Auxiliary Fire Fighters overseas. Mr. Jones returned to Canada in March, and has been awaiting his bride since. Mrs. Jones expressed herself as liking Canada and Aurora very much.

On behalf of the brigade, Fire Chief Harry Jones presented the young couple with a pair of bedroom lamps. Dancing, a singing and a dainty lunch were enjoyed.

Bob Case Is In England, Think All Aurorans Free

Mr. and Mrs. Lancelot Case received word on Saturday from their son, WO Robert Case, that he had been released from a German prison camp on May 12 and was now safe in England. Bob, who is now 22, enlisted with the R.C.A.F. in 1941. He graduated from Lachine, Que., as an air gunner in 1942 and arrived overseas in May, 1943. Following a raid over occupied territory he was reported missing in August of that year. First word of his anxious parents broadcast of him was by a German broadcast in September, which announced he was a prisoner. A few months later this was officially confirmed by the R.C.A.F.

Word has also been received locally that WO1 Ted Bundy, Toronto, a former Aurora boy who has been overseas with the R.C.A.F. since 1942 and one of the first district or former district boys to be taken prisoner, is also free and safe in England. Ted was formerly employed with The Siaman Shoe Co.

With these two announcements it is thought that all Aurorans boys or former Aurorans boys reported as prisoners of war are now safe. To date seven have been reported in England. These include FO Dale King, WO1 George Graham, WO1 Harold Taylor, Toronto, WO1-Lieut. Donald A. Webster, Ottawa, Pte. Joell Clarke, Toronto, and the two airmen mentioned above.

In addition, Cpl. Vernon Gooding, Gormley, has been reported safe following his capture last year in Italy. Pte. Clarke is the son of Mrs. Helena Clarke of Toronto, and by a curious coincidence his home while in Aurora was the same residence as that in which FO Dale King and his mother now reside.

Issue Warning To Those Ringing False Alarms

Chief of Police Fisher Dunham and Fire Chief Harry Jones have issued a stern warning to those responsible for ringing in false fire alarms. The brigade has answered several night calls in the past two weeks to find no fire. The last call was around 10 p.m. last Thursday.

"We will deal severely with the perpetrator of these foolish pranks," Chief Dunham said. "The brigade is doing a grand job and it is too bad to inconvenience the members, who are all volunteers and are working at their own jobs during the day."

Fire Chief Jones said that while there was no direct evidence the brigade had a fair idea of who might be responsible and would leave no stone unturned to complete the investigation.

HONEYMOON IS SPENT IN U.S.A.

Rev. Dr. W. D. Muckle, of Newmarket, officiated at the wedding in St. Basil's church on May 2, of Valma Loretta Hennessey, Gormley, Ont., and the late Mrs. Hennessey, and Lieut. Arthur L. Cloutier, Camp Borden, son of Mrs. A. L. Cloutier, of North Bay, and the late Mr. Cloutier.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length dress of turquoise crepe with peplum, and draped back, a matching hat with veil and bouquet of bouvardia and roses.

The bridesmaid was Miss Helen Stone, of Elmville, in a rose two-piece peplum dress with matching hat, chaiseuse veil and a corsage of varied flowers. The groomsmen were Dr. C. E. Lindenfield, of Gravenhurst.

At the Old Mill, the bride's aunt, Miss Blanche Cooney, received in a gown of deep red, with white hat and a corsage of roses and a napdragon. The groom's mother assisted and wore a black crepe ensemble with black hat and a corsage of red roses. For the wedding trip to the U.S.A., the bride travelled in a black-and-white checked tailored suit, white blouse, a matching hat with black quill, and brown fur. The couple will live in Toronto.

The bride is a graduate of Aurora high school.

BUYS HOME

Francis Weir, Agincourt, has purchased the residence of William Pattenden, Harrison Ave., but will not occupy the residence until mid-summer.

LODGE WELCOMES GUEST

Aurora Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, were honored with distinguished visitors from York and St. Patrick's chapters, Toronto, and Grand lodge officials on Friday evening. Ex. Comp. Dr. J. L. Urquhart welcomed the guests, including Grand Superintendent Fred Grose, Grand P.S. Fred Higginbottom and Past Grand Superintendent C. Pendleton. Following degrees and inspection a banquet was held.

SEND INVITATION

An invitation has been extended by the Aurora Board of Trade to His Worship Mayor Robert H. Saunders, Toronto, to address the Aurora Board of Trade's Municipal Night early in the fall. The mayor is a popular after-dinner speaker and Aurora officials are getting their bid in early.

HOLD V-E SERVICE

A combined session of Rising Sun A.P. and A.M. and the Aurora Royal Arch Masons hold a short but impressive V-E Day Thanksgiving service in the Masonic Hall on Friday evening. Taking part in the ceremony were Wor. Bro. Delroy Babcock, Ex. Comp. Dr. James Urquhart, Rev. Roy Hicks and Rev. Canon F. J. Fife.

FUND IS OVER $1,000

With the addition of a gift of $100 from the Aurora Fire Brigade, a donation of $4 from Miss Lina Holman, and $128.15 from the last paper salvage drive, the Aurora Board of Trade Memorial Site Fund now stands at $1,196.35.

TIME MARCHES ON.....

Take a quick look at your calendar! Time is getting on. If you're going to gather eggs this fall, you should be starting your chicks!

With May and June chicks it's even more important than it is earlier in the season that they should be vigorous, thrifty, fast growing and quick developing. Early chicks can take their time about growing and maturing and still get in-to production while egg prices are at their highest in the fall. But May and June chicks haven't much leeway. If you're to get them into full production by top-price time, they've GOT to grow and develop fast.

That's one of the many good things Bray Chicks are noted for.

QUEENSVILLE UNUSED BARN RAZED, CONTENTS DESTROYED

A mysterious fire broke out on Wednesday morning, May 16, in the barn owned by Mrs. J. T. Cowieson. Smoke was noticed coming from the building about 10 a.m. by H. Hulce, and when he opened the door he found the whole interior a mass of flames. No one can understand how the fire started as the barn had not been in use for over a month.

Considerable furniture was stored in the building, also a quantity of hay and feed. All were lost and the building burned to the ground. The building and contents were covered by insurance.

Pte. Tom Stickwood, Camp Borden, spent the weekend at home with his parents.

LAC Lorne Smith paid a short visit to his home here last week. He has been stationed in western Canada and has been moved to Mountain View, Ont.

Miss Evelyn Crouch, who underwent an operation for appendicitis last week in York County hospital, is improving satisfactorily and hopes to be home by the end of this week.

Miss Gwen Boyd was rushed to York County hospital last Thursday and was operated on for appendicitis. She is improving satisfactorily.

The May meeting of the Women's Institute will be held next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Wilbert Dew. Each member is asked to contribute to the program. There will be a display of antiques. The roll-call will be answered by suggestions to improve Institute programs. Mrs.

F. Weddel will give current events and Mrs. J. L. Smith will put on a contest.

Mr. Sherman Smith, formerly of Toronto and now residing in California, visited Mrs. Jacob Smith last Friday.

FO and Mrs. Reginald Button and son, Eric, spent last Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pearson.

Mrs. Bert Stoddart is visiting her brother, Mr. Harry Hulce.

Several letters have been received from the boys overseas by the president of the Red Cross, Mrs. L. Irwin, thanking the society for cigarettes.

A public educational meeting for East Gwillimbury, sponsored by the local teachers will be held Wednesday, May 30, at Queensville school at 8 p.m. sharp. H. Elborn, principal of Toronto normal school, will be the guest speaker. There will also be sound films and local talent.

HOPE

The play, Busy As A Beaver, will be presented by Agincourt Y.P. in aid of Hope W.A. at Sharon hall on May 29 at 8 p.m.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Walker recently were Mrs. Jack Rumble, Richmond Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Stephenson, Maple.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilmot entertained Mrs. McMaster, Kingston, and their son, Glenn, who recently returned from overseas, over the weekend.

Mrs. Ball, Maple, was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Boyd spent the weekend in Orillia.

A successful euchre was held in Sharon hall on Friday evening by the Hope Welcome Home club. They are holding another euchre on Thursday, May 31, and a good crowd is hoped for.

Mrs. Garnet Fairbairn, Newmarket, visited her mother, Mrs. Oscar Stickwood, who is ill.

Mrs. Stewart Stickwood is with her mother, Mrs. Morton, who is ill in Belhaven.

Mrs. Steven Thompson Lived Here 35 Years

Mrs. Steven Thompson, one of the older residents of Holland Landing, died on Tuesday, May 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and their family moved here some 35 years ago. Mr. Thompson predeceased his wife by some years. They are survived by four children: John Thompson, Holland Landing; Mrs. Bethel West (Lena), Mrs. F. Bell (Beatrice), and Mrs. Jennie Farrell, all of Toronto.

Joe Walsh held an informal get-together on Sunday at his home with Major A. H. Woods of the C.C.F. as his guest.

Mrs. E. Lundy is spending this week at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hall, Toronto.

Mrs. Andrew Quarry and son, Drew, Guelph, spent last week with Mrs. Quarry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Evans.

Mrs. Kenneth Kitching and Miss Kathleen Kitching were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Kitching.

Mr. Leslie Rowe, Toronto, spent the weekend at his home here.

Miss Margaret Pearson, Weston, visited Mrs. E. Dutton over the weekend.

Miss Connie Cook, Toronto, spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Stan Cook.

The W.A. of the United church held their May meeting in the church last Wednesday evening and had as their guests the members of Hartman W.A., who gave a nice program of music, readings and contents which was thoroughly enjoyed. A social hour was held.

The members of Mount Albert accepted an invitation of a return visit to Hartman in June. They have received several letters from boys overseas who had received the boxes sent them in March. The ladies have decided to paint the floor of the church auditorium.

Mrs. Oscar Robertson and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Elburg of Fort Erie were guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Robertson.

Marlin Stewart and Beatrice Gibney spent the weekend at Orillia with Grace Wescott.

Mrs. Leonard Wright, Uddora, has moved to W. Lunan's house.

Miss Nora Wilson and a friend of Toronto spent the weekend with Miss Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Wilson.

Milton Gibney, Roy Carr, Morley Bain, Alfred Parks and Albert Madill attended the 66th Grand Lodge of the L.O.L. held at Orillia last week.

Stan, Draper of Montclair camp spent the weekend at the home of his brother, Mr. W. Draper.

Mrs. H. D. Ramsden, Toronto, spent last week with her niece, Mrs. Nell Rowan.

Ron, Draper, Toronto, spent the weekend at his home in town.

A public educational meeting for East Gwillimbury, sponsored by the local teachers, will be held Wednesday, May 30, at Queensville school at 8 p.m. sharp. H. Elborn, principal of Toronto normal school, will be the guest speaker. There will also be sound films and local talent.

LOCAL MARKET

Butter was 40 cents a pound on the local market on Saturday morning. Eggs were 35 cents a dozen.

Chickens sold for 35 cents a pound. Green onions were five cents a bunch.

TORONTO MARKETS

Butter, creamery solids, No. 1, was 34 cents a pound on the Toronto markets on Monday. First grade creamery prints were 36 cents a pound.

Country dealers were quoted on graded eggs, on a cases free, delivered to Toronto basis, as follows: grade A large, 35½ cents; grade A medium, 33½ cents; and grade A pullets, 28½ cents a dozen.

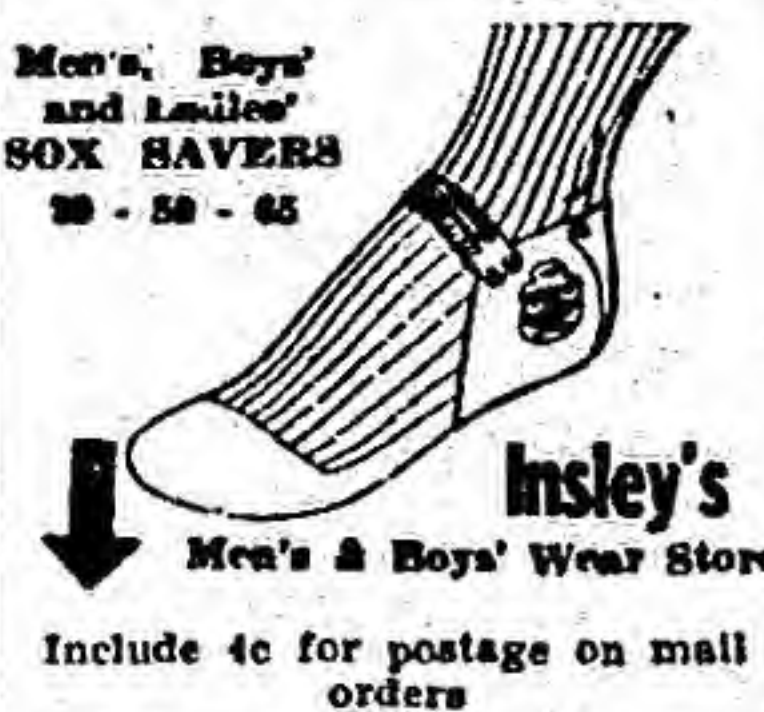

Nominal prices to the shipper on poultry were: spring broilers, over 1½ pounds, 30 cents a pound; fowl, all weights, 26 cents a pound.

Weighty steers were $18.50 to $13.50; butcher steers, $11.25 to $13; heifers, $11 to $12.25; butcher cows, $8.50 to $10.50; canners and cutters, mostly $6 to $8; bulls, $8.25 to $10.50; fed yearlings, $12 to $13.50; stockers, $8.50 to $10.50.

Calves ranged from $14.50 to $15.50, with a few tops at $16 for choice, with common light vealers downward to $8.50.

Lambs were sold at $9 to $15.50 for feed-lot, and $16 to $18 for spring lambs. Sheep were $4 to $8. Hogs were $18.35 for grade A dressedweight, $17.85 for grade B1. Sows were $15.

It costs only 25 cents (if paid in a week) to tell thousands of people about that article you do not need.

Real Social Security or Rationed Scarcity?

To the political and economic reactionary, Social Security is something to be used as a bribe to win votes — a sop to soothe unrest. Social makeshifts of that kind are actually offered to-day as political substitutes for sound, economic planning for the post-war reconstruction of Canada.

To the State Socialist, on the other hand, Social Security is a bookish theory seeking to prove that poverty would be much more endurable if only it were much more general.

And now, listen for a moment to John Bracken, the forthright leader of the Progressive Conservative Party: "The State here in Canada, unlike in Germany, is the servant of the people, not its master. Finance, and economic mechanisms associated with it, must likewise be regarded as the servants, not the masters, of our economy. The underwriting of prosperity AND social security is a proper function of the State."

Notice how closely prosperity and social security are linked together.

We are determined that Social Security shall no longer be regarded as a charity but as what it is—a social obligation and national responsibility of the very first magnitude and importance. Social Security must grow with prosperity—because the degree to which social services may be provided is determined by the size of the national income. We are pledged to maintain that income at a high prosperous level. It is against this background of plenty for all, that the Progressive Conservatives see Social Security.

The Progressive Conservative Party is pledged to provide, without delay, a uniform and comprehensive social security programme for all Canadians, including:

- ✓Extended unemployment insurance coverage.
- ✓Adequate payments for the maintenance of unemployables.
- ✓Accident and sickness benefits.
- ✓Children's allowances.
- ✓Maternity benefits.
- ✓Widows' benefits.
- ✓Retirement pensions.
- ✓Increased old age pensions at age 65.
- ✓Increased pensions for the blind.

Where any of these social services are administered provincially, we shall provide grants large enough to ensure adequate standards of social security for all Canadians.

Compare this positive and complete programme with the make-shift expedients of other parties. No other party can equal or even approach John Bracken's guarantee of security for all Canadians.

It's rational security—NOT rationed scarcity.

had the title successively held by Max Baer and Jimmy Braddock and he himself on a 12-round knockout scored over him in June, 1936, by Schmeling by scoring a one-round K.O. over the pride of the now buoyant Nazi party on June 22, 1938. That was Schmeling's last big fight and lost him considerable prestige in Germany, although Hitler and his clique squawked it had been a "fix". Max is just another prisoner now and let's keep him so.

His career reads pretty much like that of his infamous countrymen. He rose to power when the only ones in the ring were a bunch of punks. He K.O.'d a promising but green youngster, just starting to climb, because of experience and luck and then he took a good pasting when his opponent was equally prepared and fighting fit.

Leonard Scott, former Aurora lacrosse player and one of the constant sports fans of the district, is buying the cegars these days in honor of a new addition to the Scott menage, a fine daughter. Ace Yake, after a long sojourn in hospital and a holiday in England, got back in the line in time to see the finish in Germany. Right now he is in the occupation army and doubtless engaged in softball overseas.

Harold Botham, the Vandorf sports enthusiast, has made his annual decision to retire from hockey. He admits he will be playing softball again and chances are that when the snows fall again he will forget all about that bad knee. Like many of the sports fans of the district, Harold would like to see an Aurora softball league composed of Ordinance, Aurora-Vandorf Combines, Zephyr and Ballantrae.

The league would be a natural and would attract good crowds as well as carrying over the rivalry that exists all winter.

Roy Middlebrook is another that favors the plan and the master of Walnut Grove is busy organizing his Aces softball team of other years hoping that some competition can be found.
Some fair talent around too, Morley Cook, Duke Dennis and Everett, the Nigh brothers, Harry Sutton, Charlie Case and others.

A financial success is the way
the boys described the Aurora town hockey league which ended in March. After deducting the expenses incurred and presents to the officials, the teams split the take as follows: Zephyr, the league winners, garnered $160; Vandorf-Aurora, the opposing finalists, got $128, while the two bottom teams, Ballantrae and Aurora R.C.O.C. each received around $65 apiece. Not too bad considering everything and enough to give all the lads a bit of a party. That Vandorf one was a pipperoo!

ALFRED LEWIS, Prop. Newmarket

John Bracken—The Farmer

On the 11th of December, 1942, John Bracken stood in the Auditorium in Winnipeg before a great concourse of people. John Bracken
—the Farmer— was accepting the leadership of a great resurgent people's party. In ringing tones he was speaking of "The People's Charter". And the soul-searching sincerity of this man of the soil, with his vision of Canada,
of Canadians and the "world of plenty that lies within our grasp"

was deeply moving.

Picture the background of this man—this moment.
John Bracken, the farm boy, on his father's farm in Ontario, milking, haying, carrying in the wood, plowing
... then young Bracken, honours student at the Ontario Agricultural College going to Manitoba as representative of the Department of Agriculture ... on to Saskatchewan as Superintendent of Fairs and Farmers'
Institutes and Secretary of the Provincial Livestock Association ... then, later, John Bracken, author, writing books about farms, farming, farmers ...

And now years later, in Winnipeg, John Bracken, the farmer, is speaking of "the right of farmers and other primary producers to a fair share of the nation's income." Notice the simplicity of the language he uses, clear, concise—sincere.

"During the last decade," he is saying, "farm income fell to such a low average as to become of very great concern in our Canadian economy. It is the responsibility of the nation to see that this great inequity shall not be perpetuated."

Then, suddenly his voice rises, becomes even clearer, more inclusive. "I may say quite frankly that if it had not been for that plank in your platform which provides for a square deal for agriculture, I would not be here."

Two years later, in Alliston, Ontario, — again the same simplicity, the moving sincerity.

"I am an agrarian," said John Bracken, "and I am a Canadian ... who seeks to correct the major social injustices of our day — the unfairly small share of the national income that goes to farmers and farm women and farm workers." Then, with a statesman's enlargement of vision, he added, "When the injustice to the farmer is removed, the economy of Canada as a whole will be strengthened."

No one could be less parochial in his outlook—more deeply concerned with national welfare than John Bracken, the farmer who embarked twenty years ago on a career so successful as to be without precedent in contemporary political history within the British Commonwealth of Nations.

BORN AT RAVENSHOE

Charles Herbert Prosser, Courtney, North Dakota, died in the hospital at Jamestown following an operation on Saturday, May 12.
He was in the hospital a little over a week.

Mr. Prosser was born near Ravenshoe on Oct. 21, 1869, a son of the late Rebecca and Isaac Prosser, and attended Ravenshoe public school. He married Martha Wilson in March, 1897.

Mr. Prosser was manager of the grain elevator in Courtney

WILLOW BEACH WO W. THOMPSON IS SAFE IN ENGLAND

Miss Helen Huntley spent last weekend with her parents. The Boys' Comforts club meeting was held at Mrs. H. Powell's on Wednesday. The chief topic of discussion was "How to welcome our boys back home."

Mrs. Wm. Thompson received word from headquarters that her son, WO W. Thompson, has been liberated from a German war prisoner camp and is safe in the United Kingdom.

Mrs. David Jones, who has been in Sutton hospital for the past two years, died on Sunday. The funeral was held on Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John McNeill.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Matt have moved back to their home on the lake shore.

RAVENSHOE

Rev. Mr. Paisley occupied the pulpit last Sunday afternoon at Ravenshoe United church. He gave an inspiring message on Building A Solid Foundation.

William Holborn, who spent the greater part of his life on the Holborn farm near Ravenshoe, later moving to Keswick, died suddenly last week.

The farmers are anxious about their crops because of so much wet weather.

GLENVILLE

The Glenville W.A. will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. Gould for a supper meeting on Wednesday, May 30.

Under the auspices of the W.A., Rev. R. R. McMath of Newmarket will show an interesting set of slides in Glenville church on Friday evening, June 8, at 8.15. Lunch will be served.

The Era and Express may be purchased at Queenie's, Sutton.

KESWICK HEART ATTACK FATAL TO WM. F. HOLBORN

The community was saddened and shocked by the sudden death of William Franklin Holborn, well-known farmer and native of the Ravenshoe district, who had lived in Keswick since his retirement several years ago. Mr. Holborn died last Friday morning, a few moments after an acute heart attack brought on by strenuous work immediately after flowing from the cistern, he hurried down cellar with brace and bit and removed the wooden plug which had kept the overflow out of the auxiliary cistern.

Mr. Holborn is survived by his wife, his daughter, Mrs. Munroe King (Ruth), Toronto, and his three sons, John, Canadian army, Halifax, Lorne, Belhaven, and Ralph, Ravenshoe. His sister, Mrs. Fred Evans (Mary), Queensville, and his foster sister, Mrs. John McLean (Ida), Toronto, are also living. Born at Ravenshoe Sept. 14, 1875, he was the only son of the late John Holborn who grew to manhood, three brothers having died in childhood.

Mr. Holborn was an elder of Ravenshoe United church and a faithful attendant there and later at Keswick. He was representative of the Ravenshoe congregation in the Toronto centre presbytery and the Toronto conference of the United church.

Following the family service at the residence on Monday, a public service was held in Keswick United church. A congregation of more than 300 was present, while others were unable to gain admittance to the over-crowded building. The service was conducted by his minister, Rev. Gordon Lapp, with Rev. Hugh Shannon of Queensville assisting.

2. A C.C.F. government would not nationalize or socialize farms. The government will set up marketing boards, with producer and consumer representation, so that farmers may be assured of adequate prices for their produce. Insurance against crop failure; debt adjustment; new credit facilities and encouragement of co-operatives are among the many benefits that will be provided for the farmer.

3. A C.C.F. government will adopt, in consultation with organized labor, a national labor code, which will effectively guarantee the right to organize, enforce collective bargaining and outlaw company unions.

Labor will be given direct representation on government boards whose decisions affect labor. Labor will also be given a share in the management production committees and through direct labor representation on the boards of publicly owned industries.

4. Legislation to establish adequate wages, control of working hours will also be introduced.

5. Socialized health service, a large scale public housing scheme, financial assistance to provinces to enable the provinces to extend higher educational facilities to those to whom it is now denied, and adequate old age pensions for all at 60, are among the many other items in the C.C.F. program which space will not permit me to describe in detail.

I wish to assure you that, if you honor me by electing me as your representative on June 11, I shall make it a full time job. I shall work in your interest every day of the year, not merely while the house is in session.

(Continued from Page 1) eation it will be my purpose to see that all veterans are given a square deal. To this end I pledge myself. I hope they will feel free at all times to come and discuss their problems with me. I shall endeavor as far as my strength permits to see that every veteran gets reinstated in civil life on a self-supporting basis. The country must provide such training and assistance as may be necessary to do that. In this regard, All Red Tape Must Be Eliminated.

Moving out and in among the good people of North York as I have done for the past year, I have discovered one thing that is very present with everybody is the dread of another depression. There is a feeling that things are not as secure as they should be. The only answer of course is a job for those who can work at fair pay and care for those who cannot. If we join hands and plan to use all our resources, such as fostering international trade, careful use of the state's finances and co-operation between government, industry and labor, our future can be safe.

All these things of course cannot be set in motion over night, but where we have a party pledged to give equal rights to all, as our Progressive-Conservative party is determined to do, these many reforms will soon become effective.

My friends have chosen me to carry the "Bracken" banner in the forthcoming campaign and I ask you, as my friends, to elect me on June 11 as your next representative in parliament and together we shall face the future and make it what Providence plans it to be.

(Continued from Page 1) times when neither fair wages nor fair farm prices will cover special needs—and keep the necessary money in the citizen's pocket. Take, for instance, the transition of the ex-serviceman back to civilian life: for that period, the Liberals have put into effect the highest rehabilitation benefits in the world.

Take the brief gap in employment that may result when a worker shifts from wartime to peacetime industry. For that, the Liberals introduced unemployment insurance and a fund of $250,000,000—most of it contributed by employer and employee—is ready to meet that emergency.

Take the arrival of a new baby—which should mean joy to the family instead of the economic tragedy it is so often today. For that, family allowances will start in July. Take unexpected illness: health insurance is already under way. Or old age: a vastly improved system has been drawn up by the same Liberal party which created the present one.

Industry itself will need stimulation. The Liberals have launched an immense housing scheme, which covers farm as well as town. Through their Industrial Development Bank they are prepared to supply funds and encouragement to industries—particularly the smaller ones—which have sound ideas for expansion. Public works will be undertaken as needed but the main emphasis is on increased activity by private business.

So far this has all been concerned with the domestic market. But Canada, economically, has never been able to live to herself alone. Exports, before the war, represented about 35 percent of the country's marketing. The Liberals propose not only to retain old markets but to cultivate new ones and they have set an objective of a 15 percent increase in exports over the pre-war level. To achieve it, funds have been set aside to guarantee payments to exporters and international negotiations are now under way to facilitate the exchange of goods with other nations.

Add these export markets to the greatly improved domestic market and you have the Liberal formula for continued prosperity—not only the greatest program ever presented to Canadians but the only all-embracing one offered by any political party in the present campaign.

ROCHE'S POINT

The monthly meeting of the Roche's Point Women's Institute was held Tuesday evening, May 15, at the home of Mrs. J. L. Doyle. Mrs. Doyle and Mrs. P. J. Cole were tea hostesses. Miss Mary C. Young gave current events and Miss E. Young read an interesting article entitled, Legs. The article gave a detailed account of a man who, having lost his left leg in early boyhood and having been told there was no hope of an artificial limb for him since there was little or no stump, designed a leg for himself—and later, having lost his right leg, designed legs for himself—and is now a decided help to servicemen who are to be fitted with artificial limbs.

The next meeting of the W.I. will be held Tuesday evening, June 18, at the home of Mrs. Lister, at 7.30.

Vic. Bridges is home after almost three and a half years overseas.

Harold Upton is expected home soon.

Miss Mary C. Young, Miss Emma Young and Mrs. C. J. Diamond are attending Grand Lodge this week.

Mrs. Christina Sherman is leaving today for a stay in Toronto.

Miss Edna Brown, Toronto, spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Brown.

KESWICK

Mrs. H. Taylor and son of Uxbridge were Sunday guests of Mr. Freeman Pollock.

Cpl. John Holborn, called home by the sudden death of his father, arrived in Keswick on Sunday.

Rev. Gordon Lapp conducted services for the late Mrs. Martin Rose (nee Speck), Ravenshoe, last Saturday.

20 REASONS WHY ONE SHOULD PURCHASE THESE SUITS AT INSLEY'S

As many people do not know the importance of proper inside construction of suits of quality. The part that is invisible to the eye is what counts—the most for quality and wear.

1. Front chest seams are all invisibly tacked to hymo foundations by Irish linen thread.
2. Top and lower pockets fastened to hymo foundations by linen thread and reinforcing linen stay from armholes.
3. A reinforcing linen stay tape put under the natural roll of lapel sewn to the front of the coat foundation preventing lapel stretching or bulging, also coat from swinging backwards.
4. The facing at the place where it joins on lining is carefully tacked. This feature prevents facing from bagging out when coat is unbuttoned.
5. Front and back armholes also underarm and centre back seams are drawn in with linen stay tape to prevent armholes from stretching and eliminate the possibility of wrinkles in coat.
6. The undercollar and topcollar are basted on by hand and finely stitched on by hand allowing the collar to retain a fine, thin edge.
7. All button holes made with No. 1 silk.
8. All lapels finely padded.
9. Real Irish linen stay tape used for reinforcing.
10. All pockets hand tacked with strong, linen thread.
11. Breast pockets worked into facing and tacked by hand with silk thread, ensuring strength.
12. Sleeve linings tacked to sleeve by hand.
13. Very fine quality lining used for vest and pant curtain.
14. Open sleeve and hand-sewn sleeve lining.
15. All seams on vest are double sewn.
16. All pants made with welted pockets. Button fly, pockets turned and sewn.
17. Shoulders on sack coats are hand sewn.
18. Delivery within three weeks.
19. Tailored by one of Canada's leading quality tailoring houses which means so much in the construction of your suits.
20. When you returned boys purchase a suit at Insley's, we guarantee a proper fit and satisfaction. You can rest assured you are doing business with people of wide experience.
